Dear Ms. Harnes

On behalf of the National Centre for Culture and Arts of King Hussein Foundation, I take this opportunity to commend your efforts and those of the Friendship Ambassadors Foundation for this beneficial and valuable initiative.

The National Centre for Culture and Arts of King Hussein Foundation is proud to be part of the project that aims at promoting international friendship and understanding through cultural exchange and community service.

The performing arts is a strong and important tool that can be utilized to dissolve barriers and bring people together for a common purpose , build mutual understanding and respect and develop global thinking by fostering and developing international understanding and friendship across cultural divides.

The NCCA believes that in conducting art based projects that foster creativity and confidence, children and youth have the opportunity to express their aspirations freely, engage with their peers in constructive dialogue, alleviate stereotype images and exchange valuable life experiences.

The variety of activities that will be conducted as part of the World Children Choir 's project in 2010 and 2011 will translate the vision of the NCCA to promote and develop cross cultural understanding, tolerance and peace building.

Best regards,

Lina Attel
